

HOCKEY HERITAGE CELEBRATION

LONG POND

Friday, January 29

Two Exciting Events and EVERYONE'S invited to BOTH!

10:30 a.m. to Noon

The Province of Nova Scotia and the Long Pond Arena Society invite you to attend a Hockey Heritage Celebration at Long Pond, Dill Family Farm, this Friday from 10:30 am to noon. Also attending are celebrated former NHL players, Ric Nattress and Rich Sutter.

There will be live entertainment and refreshments.
Everyone is encouraged to wear their favourite hockey jersey.

7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

An exciting evening begins in the Ted Canavan Athletic Centre at King's-Edgehill School for updates on the planned arena project.

The path through the College Woods will be lit. Stroll back to historic Long Pond, the way the students from King's did circa 1800.

Hockey Legend Guy Lafleur will be at the pond at 8pm.

There will be skating, hot dogs, coffee and hot chocolate.

At 9:00 pm, fireworks will light-up Long Pond.

Public Parking at the Dill Farm, 400 College Road or beside the Ted Canavan Athletic Centre, King's-Edgehill School.
